About the service

Mullingar E Working Centre is a Westmeath County Council facility based on the campus at Áras on Chontae in the historic Governor's House. It is a shared workspace in comfortable bright open plan offices with high quality broadband. It is available for employees and small business owners to use.

Mullingar E Working Centre

E-Working or remote working is suitable for:

- Employees who are currently commuting long distances to work and would like to work closer to home.
- Owners of small or start up enterprises who need a quiet workspace.
- Business owners who do not have access to quality broadband at their own business premises.
- It is also very popular with local people who are dropping their car to be serviced and require a hotdesk to work, workers who wish to meet up with colleagues and use the meeting room space, local people whose broadband is down.
